- ★Ujjivan serves over 550,000 poor women across India, who believe that education is the only way out of poverty.
- ★The poor turned to private schools for quality education.
- ★They spend around Rs. 5000/- per child annually, on fees, books and uniforms.
- ★Ujjivan provides customers an Education Loan of Rs.5,000/- per child at affordable rates, giving the poor respite from exploitative moneylenders.
- ★41% of the education loans have been given for girls.

Existing Education Loan Snapshot:

~6,400 loans disbursed

~70 branches across India

~Rs. 3.2 Crores disbursed

How this works:

→ Interest paid by the customer is refunded on closure of the loan, based on the following criteria:

- Customers must have used the loan for education
- The student must be promoted to a higher class and continue schooling

→ Deserving students will be provided with a need and merit based scholarship to cover 60% cost of a year of Higher Education.

Donations* to Parinaam Foundation are tax exempt under section 80G (5) (vi) of Income Tax Act, 1961

* Currently donations from foreign sources under FCRA cannot be accepted.

How you can help:

You make a donation to Parinaam

Parinaam repays the loan’s interest amount to the Ujjivan customer and provides scholarships to deserving students

- ★ Encourages the family and the child to pursue quality education.
- ★ Ultimately helps the family come out of poverty.
